Title: Papal bull

Language(s): Latin

Incipit: Pope Clement XI to the bishop of Worms, Germany resolving a conflict between Peter Wallendorf and Ferdinand Stumelium, priest of Worms, over a canonate and prebend at St. Martin?s in Worms.

Notes: Issued in Rome at St. Peter?s, on the eighteenth of the Kalends of May 1707, in the seventh year of the pontificate of Clement XI. Wallendorf had supposedly retired from the benefice and it had been given to Stumelium, but Wallendorf reasserted his claim. In order to resolve the dispute, Clement XI asked the bishop to make sure that Wallendorf received a place to live and Stumelium received a benefice with an annual income of 24 gold ducats de camera.
